First, DUES ARE DUE!!!

Remember, "if you're gonna play (Kiwanian), U gotta pay (Int'l)". The club must pay in advance, and so must we. How much??? Lin will remind us today. Good idea to bring your checkbook. Rolls close for '07/08 on Sept. 26. Well, OK, you've got another week, but waiting may cause an oversight, and we don't want to loose you. Second, George Stocker is celebrating his 85th birthday this month. We're all invited to celebrate with him. Lin has all the details for us today.

Third, our projects this year have been very successful ...now comes the Golf Tournament. ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS!!! Jim & Ron pulled & pushed so hard, it was like 18 holes in 12!!!! More than 50 duffers had their day...shade, calm air and lots of fun, food & surprises. And the income was right on target, too. Let's all call Jim Bloss @ 425-231-5186 and congratulate him for another great season closer! Notice how hard it rained on Sunday????

SPECIAL REMINDERS

Kiwanis of Monroe will join with other service groups of our community for Days of Caring program sponsored by United Way of Snohomish County. Linda Kline is chair of our committee of volunteers. The club recently chose to provide our presence (5 members in all) to assist with the Pandemic Flu Exercise. It is a chance to role-play in VGH's community wide response procedures test. Sept. 29, 9am to 1pm. THIS IS A TEST!!! If the real thing should occur, we'll have better instructions as a result.

Rev. Tom Sorenson: Club members in our midst who could use your support, e.g., prayers, visits and/or phone calls. Please contact Tom @ his office on 794-7601 or email him at Pastor@Monroeucc.org with suggestions.

2008 GARAGE SALE PLANS UNDERWAY

Our Garage Sale in June was such a big success (we made a handsome profit for the annual Scholarship Fund) with great community participation. Your Board voted in July to do it again next year and so..... A three person committee has been created (Linda Cline, Adrian Taylor and Pres. Lin (whose idea it was in the first place) to begin the next one.
