Success !!!! BBQ 2006

Jim Rahm - July 30, 2006

Well, you Tillicum's did it. With a lot of hard work from all the active members in staggering heat on a beautiful weekend the Tillicum pulled off the most successful Salmon BBQ of the club's history. Great work by all the Tillicum's who stepped up and hung in there for five grueling days. Members who have been on leave due to illness returned to help out, it was wonderful to see Mary Gardner at the ticket both, to hear Dibe Peters left his sick bed to be Grand Marshall in the Kla Ha Ya Days' parade, to see Cliff Bailey walk through Hill Park after his hip operation to get his Salmon dinner. This is the Tillicum spirit of this club and why I love it and all its members.

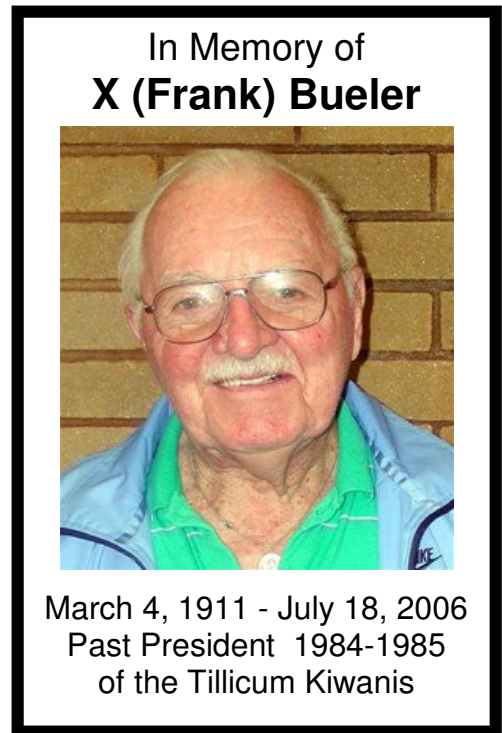

Thank you one and all from the bottom of my heart!

I would like to make some suggestions. I believe our great success in the 2006 BBQ was due to several things. (1) Lots of media coverage in newspapers, radio and cable coming from our public relations committee members, Stanley Innes, Wally Walsh and myself who talked the Herald into printing Jack King cooking fish. (2) Wally the clown's effort downtown with the Cushman and the ticket/information booth. (3) The luck with the weather, we can't control the weather but we can keep up and increase the effort on the other two.

We need one other thing, MAN POWER, to enable us to increase our fish poundage and to serve that fish. My idea of this is simple and will work well if we can't attract new members able to handle this flow. We need to split into two shifts per day so we are not killing ourselves. I invited our long time partners, the Sportsmen's Club to join us at the BBQ this year; they did so by selling chances at their booth on their annual boat raffle and did quite well on sales. I'm asking our new President to make that offer again to the Sportsmen Club for next year. In addition, I'm asking the Tillicum make a deal with the Sportsmen to buy $500.00 worth of chances on their boat in our name if they provide provide five workers per day to help us with serving and pit work on Saturday and Sunday. If our club should win the boat we sell off the boat and put the funds in the Administration account. I believe we can make this work for all of us. Please consider this.

Thanks,
Jim.

Good night, children of the world

Thursday, July 27, 2006 - Kiwanis International website

Children worldwide will sleep better because Aktion Club now has its first International Service Initiative: Sleeping Children Around the World (SCAW).

Headquartered in Toronto, Ontario, SCAW provides bed kits to children in need throughout the developing world. Each US$28/CAD$30 donation stocks a kit with a mat or mattress, pillow, sheet, blanket, mosquito net (if applicable), clothes, towel, and school supplies.

The Kiwanis International Foundation is helping Aktion Club launch the initiative with a US$10,000 grant. Each club will receive a maximum US$200 in matching gifts for donations made to SCAW.

To learn more about the service initiative, including information on how your Aktion Club can participate, go to <http://www.aktionclub.org/aktion/resources/svcinitiative.asp> on the worldwide web.
