

GOVERNORS PROJECT “District Emphasis” Pacific Northwest District 2006-2007

YOUNG CHILDREN PRIORITY ONE AND SENIORS TOO

To encourage our Kiwanis Clubs to focus on new service projects for our elderly population.

This term we are asking to expand our service and enjoy serving the elderly in our communities, as well as our youth. There are thousands of ways to offer Kiwanis “Service with a Smile”, to our seniors. Project ideas include personal visitation, household fixes, lawn service, oil changes, fire alarm checks, even light bulb replacement. One club decided to pre-pay for heating oil from a local company to make sure there is heat for the homes of the elderly during the winter. I love the party called “Senior Ball” which involves the Key Club. If you let Governor Lori or I know your ideas and I will pass them on to other clubs. Complete your Official Monthly Report and include the hours your club gives. The most important portion of the emphasis on elderly is to care, watch for ways you can be helpful.

Celebrating women in Kiwanis

Feb 9, 2007, From Kiwanis International Website

Twenty years ago, Kiwanis extended an invitation to women to join. Kiwanis International celebrates this anniversary by honoring those women who have made a significant contribution to their communities through service. If you know such a Kiwanian, tell us about her and why she deserves to be recognized.

Kiwanis International will identify women who represent the very best of Kiwanis and share their stories with regional and national media, as well as consider them for possible future use in Kiwanis publications.

Spread the news that Kiwanis women are changing the world one child and one community at a time.

Quote of the Day

If you think it's hard to meet new people, just try picking up the wrong golf ball.

Please give John Bruce, Jim Rahm or Wally Walsh any corrections to these lists you observe need to be made. Also any articles for the newsletter are gladly accepted.

Thank you!

One Day celebrates family service

(From Kiwanis International website)

Every Kiwanis club should reserve the date of Saturday, April 7, 2007, for the launch of a major new Kiwanis service initiative. That's the date chosen for the first Kiwanis One Day.

On Kiwanis One Day, every Kiwanis club is urged to join with the rest of the Kiwanis family--K-Kids, Builders, Key Club, Circle K, and Aktion Club--for a day of united service.

Called Kiwanis One Day: One Way, One Day, One K, the event is inspired by the success of the California-Nevada-Hawaii District's annual Total K Day and International President Nelson Tucker's initiative to create a day that unites the entire Kiwanis family in service.

Kiwanis One Day will provide an opportunity to showcase the Kiwanis family and our commitment to service in each community. Think of the impact of more than 600,000 Kiwanis family members can make in one day of united service.

Every club is invited to take part in this momentous event by following the step-by-step plan, which includes tips on forming a committee, selecting a project, motivation and incentives, and a template news release to inform the news media.

President's message:

(From Kiwanis International website)

For 'one day' there is Kiwanis

One day ... no child will go to bed hungry.

One day ... no child will quench his thirst with contaminated water.

One day ... no child will cry for the terror of wars happening in her back yard. Or for the brutal betrayal of her parent's angry hand.

One day ... no child will be denied books, teachers, and the opportunity to learn.

One day ... no child will shiver homeless in the cold. Or blanket his chill by getting high. Or worse.

One day ... all children everywhere will enjoy childhood as it should be: a time of carefree curiosity, limitless creativity, security, comfort, and blissful innocence.

Until that day, there is Kiwanis.

You see, for Kiwanians around the world, "one day" is happening every day through myriad service projects aimed ultimately at making the world a better place for children. It's one Kiwanian in Ohio who reads to a child struggling to learn. It's one Kiwanian in Québec who quells a child's hunger pangs with a hot meal. It's one Kiwanian in El Salvador who builds a well so children in an underprivileged village can have fresh, clean water. And it's you: one Kiwanian who, alongside other Kiwanians from 8,000 clubs in more than 90 nations, makes a difference.

On April 7, we will discover together the magnitude of what our service means to the world—and what more still we are capable of accomplishing—as the entire Kiwanis family pools our compassion for humankind in a single day of service: "Kiwanis One Day."

Young, old, man, woman; from diverse races, nationalities, economic positions, and religions; our collective caring hands will reach out to make history as one powerful force for positive change. Our servant hearts will beat in global synchronicity for service—especially for children.

On April 7:

One Way ... will unite Kiwanians who individually can make a difference, into a single service entity strong enough to change the world.

One Day ... is set aside to touch lives on an unimaginable scale.

One K ... will bring "one day" to children.

Inter-clubbing with Jack and Bill

Story by Jim Rahm - Edited by Sonia Rahm & Melody Beckdolt

For those of you who don't know what it's like to roll on an interclub with these two, you have to go on one. The trip starts at 5:00 AM the alarm sounds, off to pick up Melody and Howard, who are both ready and waiting. Sonia thinks we are to meet Jack, Bill and Frank at Tops parking lot at 6:00AM. Arriving at the given time there was no sign of the group. I call Jack on his cell, "where are you?" Jack says, "rolling north why?", so we now hit the highway going north to Stanwood. We drive into the restaurant parking lot and notice very few cars. Talk about webmasters who are not to bright; I posted this on the internet two weeks before this day!

02/22/2007 Stanwood-Camano Kiwanis:

February 22 – lunch meeting, Noon at the Viking Restaurant (No 7am meeting)

When we arrive at the restaurant, Jack King asks, "What is going on?" I say, "Oh, I forgot they meet at noon today". Jack has some choice words for me. "YOU DUMB A ___. " Oh well, I had a senior moment. Off we go for breakfast; this is where Bill comes into play, "how about breakfast in Arlington, at the Blue Bird Café?". Getting there was an added adventure, Jack missed seeing a stop sign and went right though it! Sure enough I didn't see it either, and followed Jack right through the same stop sign! Next, I had to park on the other side of the street. Seeing no traffic coming I made a U turn, right in front of the Police station! Later, Howard informs me, U turns are not legal in Washington or at least not in the middle of the block! Great food at the Blue Bird Café made the minor errors more bearable.

You all know what happens next; the Angel of the Winds Casino opens at 8:00 AM. Some Tillicum's had the brains not to insert their hard earned money in the noisy little light filled machines; example Frank and Howard. The rest of us were not so smart; some won some lost, but, Jack doesn't let things get out of hand by saying "it's time to go". The big winner of the Angel of the Winds Casino/interclub with Bill and Jack to Stanwood was Melody; she managed to keep the money she came with. Arriving home by 11:50 AM I e-mailed the Stanwood club telling them our story, letting them know we shall soon return; all in all it was a great interclub, as always, with Bill and Jack. 😊

PS: Seven members attended this semi-annual Inter-club. If these two (Bill & Jack) ever find out Stanwood-Camano Kiwanis is going to have a noon meeting again, the Tillicum will have to charter a Bus for all of us who would want to go! Stanwood-Camano Kiwanis info can be found at <http://snohomishkiwanis.org/> on the events calendar on the lower left of the page keep your eye out. Count Sonia and me in on that one as well. I happen to know the noon meeting thing will be often, I believe monthly.

PPS: There has been talk of moving the Board Meeting to a more relaxed atmosphere. May I make the suggestion of the Angel of the Winds Casino; there breakfast is only $.99 per person and has a very relaxed atmosphere.
