

Another Fun Day at the Snohomish Chalet

August 4, 2007 John Bruce

Volunteering sure is tough, just look at Jim Rahm working his you know what off setting up for the Summerfest celebration at the Snohomish Chalet on Saturday, August 4th. Tillicum Kiwanis had a crew there blowing up balloons, handing them out to kids and residents, manning the cotton candy and ice cream booths, printing photos and doing anything else that was needed.

This free festival is held on the first Saturday in August of every year for the residents of Delta Rehabilitation and all people of differing abilities in the surrounding community. It is presented by the facility as a thank you to the volunteers and people associated with Delta. A fun time was had by all!!

Did I forget something?

Story: by Mr. Forgetful himself-Jim Rahm

Last month 08/24/2007 Sonia received a phone message after a day of volunteering at the Food Bank, the call was from Denise of the Boys & Girls Club. Denise was reminding Sonia the Tillicum had committed to supply & serve food that night for their weekly Friday Teen night. Big woops came upon our lips; both Sonia and I had forgotten the event as all others in the Tillicum club had. Sonia quickly went to Tops and got eight subs, drinks and snacks. We arrived about fifteen minutes late at The Boys & Girls club with all four of our grandkids in hand and tried to act as nothing had happened. It all came off well and thanks to Sonia's quick thinking all of us looked good.

I hope next year Denise calls us with a reminder a little sooner, after all we are Tillicum's and everyone knows we are a little forgetful at times. It was a fun thing and we are glad we didn't mess up too bad.

Quote of the Day

"What's the use of happiness? It can't buy you money."

The PNW Convention!

Reporting Jim Rahm - telling it like it is.

Well, another convention and did we solve anything? From my point, a layman down in the pits, I saw a lot of back patting, heard a lot of rah rah rah going on, then I went into vote as I was sent to do. I found only one vote available to me as a delegate. That vote was for Governor Designee for 2008-2009, the rest of the votes were passed on to the secretary – treasurer for his sole vote and all the voting was passed. I personally don't know what any of the passed votes were about or what was in them. Surely if this is the manner of voting in PNW why should any Club pay to attend a rather costly convention? Is it for the classes given? Well I also have something to say about the classes; the first class John B & I went to was a website class. After waiting 15 min. we were told there was a mix-up and no one knew who was to teach the class; but the following class instructor was seated in the rear of the room who was to teach one of the “rah rah rah” classes of which we have had to many times in the past. That instructor asked if we would like her to start early, everyone but one said no, so she started setting up “saying some of you want me to” then starter session. John and I looked at each other and with that we split for home.

Now the good points of the convention: John Bruce attended Thursday & Saturday and found the Thursday was worth the drive as he is incoming Club President. Wally attended the entire convention and Friday was elected Lt. Governor of Division 22 for 2007-2008 and tells me he learned a lot. Sonia attended Thursday and said she learned some more. Jim attended Saturday and said it all in this article.
