SERVING THE CHILDREN OF THE WORLD

Kiwanis of Silver Lake

The Month of February

The first program of February was speaker John Cartmell, a Certified Nutritionist. He spoke on wellness which is different in every person. Many, many guests from Kiwanis of Mukilteo attended the meeting promoting their March 12th, 8 am to 12 Noon Kiwanis Club of Mukilteo 6th Annual Pancake Breakfast to be held at the Olympic View Middle School, 2602 Mukilteo Speedway.

Carol Spate, Treasurer of Mill Creek Friends of the Mill Creek Library spoke on the many different ways they reticulate donated books including annual sales to raise funds for an annual Professional Development Grant of up to $2000.

At the February 15th lunch meeting it was voted to pay from the scholarship account $50 for each Key Club attending the March 15th -17th Key Club District Convention.

On February 22nd the program was Alan Sinfuego Manager of Customer Services at the Mill Creek Station of the United States Postal Service at Mill Creek. He spoke on the services available through the United States Postal Service.

Board of Directors

February 28, 2011

The monthly Board Meeting of the Kiwanis of Silver Lake was held at Merrill Gardens at Mill Creek at 7:00 pm on February 29, 2011. It was preceded by a buffet dinner served by the Merrill Gardens staff.

Items brought up for discussion by President Jack LaPoint included:

- Zone E Conference – Jack LaPoint and Donna Sprague have sent in registrations. The cost of $40 per Kiwanis Member was paid by the Kiwanis of Silver Lake. The Kiwanis of Silver Lake also donated $10 toward the basket auction.
- Trailer awning – tabled until better weather
- See's Candy – haven't received a report from the Key Club
- Next Board meeting is to be held at Peggy Ferguson's at 6:00 am beginning with a potluck
- Cub Scouts Blue and Gold Dinner was postponed until March 2
- Inter Club to Monroe is March 16 at noon
- A representative from the Everett Aqua Sox will be a future speaker. It was recommended that Kiwanis night be in August.
- A letter was received from the Kiwanis International Foundation recommending a $5 donation per member. Jack will check with Treasurer Tom Sullivan to see if this has been paid, if not it was approved to pay.
- The S.I.G.N newsletter reported 17,000 patients in 2010, 29 new programs started in 2010 and 18,000 nails shipped in 2010
- Gloria Williams received a thank you letter from Housing Hope for the recent donation of supplied from the Kiwanis of Silver Lake.

Having no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

From President Jack LaPoint
