

KIWANIS HELMET PROGRAM:

Project leader Scott Phariss and John Jacobson with Kiwanis helmets.

This year, the Kiwanis Bicycle Helmet Program was spearheaded by the Kiwanis “Tuesday Night Crew”. Led by project leader Scott Phariss, members worked with College Place and Chase Lake Elementary schools to determine their needs for helmets.

Susan Henry packing a load for school.

All of the prep work, unpacking, labeling and repacking, was done by Scott, Ted, and our newest member Marka Kreiman at the Shoreline Windermere offices. Special thanks to broker/owner Gary Alston for providing work space for this community project.

Scott loading his van with Kiwanis Helmets

Helmets were distributed to Chase Lake (30) by Scott, Dick, Ted and Lloyd, while the College Place (90) duties were carried out by Susan, Scott and John Jacobson.

Great job “Tuesday Crew” (Scott, Susan, Juliana, John, and Marka) and many thanks to those other members that were willing to assist in this valuable community project.

KIWANIS MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

This month we had many opportunities to serve on projects or fund raising efforts. We want to recognize those members that picked up the banner of Kiwanis during this very busy month and helped out.

Without the volunteer work by these members, our club would not be able to carry out our mission of compassion and care in our community.

The following lists those dedicated Kiwanians willing to devote their time to furthering the cause.

Water Front Festival:

Coordinator Mary Lou Kantor, John Rutter, Ray Ault, George Murray(2), Dick Cassutt, Ted Morris, Buck Weaver, Paul Jacobson and Marka Kreiman.

Helmet Project:

Project Leader Scott Phariss, Susan Henry, Juliana Van Buskirk, Marka Kreiman, Ted Morris, Dick Cassutt, and Lloyd Keiley.

Edmonds Art Festival:

Dick Cassutt(2), Duane Penning, Ray Ault, Marka Kreiman and Ted Morris.

Scholarships:

George Murray and Dick Cassutt.

WHY WE CELEBRATE:

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,
When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. (See the original text for the complete list of grievances against Great Britain.)

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

CONSIDER THIS...

- * Great love and great achievement take great risk.
- * When you lose, don't lose the lesson.
- * Don't let a little dispute injure a great relationship.
- * Open your arms to change, but don't let go of your values.
- * Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.

For more info, contact Dick Cassutt if you would like to know more about these wonderful programs and how you might help.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER

Thanks to the efforts of Dick Cassutt, Marka Kreiman was recently inducted into the Kiwanis Club of Edmonds by John Rutter. Marka, who has already started volunteering on Kiwanis projects, will be attending the Tuesday Crew Meetings.

Marka has a heart for working on efforts to help children, so she has landed in the right area. We look forward to meeting Marka and learning more about her and her passion for helping children. WELCOME MARKA!!!

Making a Move!!!

Starting July 3rd, the Kiwanis Club of Edmonds will be starting a new era. We will be meeting Tuesdays at the Pancake Haus on 5th ave. from 12 - 1.

This move was supported by a large percentage of our active membership (86%) and was a change that the board decided was needed now. Club growth and revitalization is a top priority...for a club that wants continue to grow its' mission of helping the children of the community.

Implementing this change was seen as a way of improving our ability to attract new members, specifically those who are unable to attend a mid morning meeting. The Pancake Haus affords us the opportunity to hold meetings where members and visitors can have a meal, of their choosing, or just a cup of coffee, during the meeting.

We will sorely miss the fantastic location of the Edmonds Senior Center and the gracious hospitality shown to our club over the many years. We sincerely thank the ESC staff for all their help and involvement over the years.
