ARNIE'S RESTAURANT RENEWS:

It is official....The restaurant voted the "Best Seafood" place in western Washington. "ARNIE'S", has renewed their sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club of Edmonds.

Needless to say...we really didn't need to be told this. It is our favorite place lunch with our guest speakers following our meetings.

We are so thankful for businesses like Arnie's, that continue to support our mission to help the children of our community.

THANKS ARNIE'S

SAD NEWS:

We were saddened by the recent news of the passing of Seamus Dooley. Seamus was the driving force behind our food bank drives for the past several years. He was always pushing us to do more...and was heavily involved in the drives and worked those extra hours to ensure our success.

Seamus' humor and dedication to service will be greatly missed.

BERRY DRIVE UPDATE:

Al, Clayne, Shirley, and Buck: "On the front lines"

We are two thirds of the way in completing our 2011 berry sales fund raiser. To date we have sold 96 containers of strawberries and 40 containers of raspberries.

Next on the agenda, for Thursday, July 28th, our biggest seller, the fresh boxed blueberries of Skagit Valley. So far, we have booked 121 containers.

Project leader, Clayne Leitner advises that there is still a "small window" to get your order in. So, if you want some of these anti-oxidant charged delights, contact him pronto.

NOTE: Clayne advises that he will need help in a couple areas:

1. Calling to remind our customers of the pickup time and place.
2. Eight able bodied and happy volunteers to hand out the berries at the Edmonds Senior Center parking lot.

If you can HELP, see Clayne at our next meeting.

MEMBERSHIP

Hey team, seems like we need to rev up our efforts to grow our club. We have existing projects and a host of great opportunities needing more resources.

We now have two options to offer potential members, the Tuesday morning group or the Monthly Monday Night Crew. Both of these groups offer many opportunities for service and fellowship.

Let's START inviting some new blood.

Picnic at the Park:

Jim and Ray settling in, ready for some chow!!!

The big news for the picnic in the park was that it did not rain!!! While this wasn't our biggest turnout, we did have good representation by club members...some even brought their spouse.

Mary Lou leading the singing, "This little light of mine"

As always, those baked beans were blue ribbon winners, and folks gobbled up the deviled eggs and the bean and potato salads. And for a special treat we had two versions of chicken!!! Oh yes, several enjoyed the sushi and the strawberry shortcake.

A magical moment: "Is that really the sun shining???"

Thanks to Ray Roe, Dick Lunstrum, Mattie Martin, and Clayne Leitner for setting up this wonderful summer interlude of food, fun and fellowship.

Let's do this again....in the fall!!!
