The Snohomish Kiwanis Club

Make a World of Difference In Their Community

SNOHOMISH – Kiwanis Club \February 2009 ---

The Snohomish Kiwanis Club announced to its members what a great year they had under President Jim MacMillan's leadership, returning almost $50,000 to the community as well as contributing nearly 1000 service hours to their projects. This does not count time spent in fund raising which was extensive.

The big winners this year for Snohomish Kiwanis support were the Boy's and Girl's Club, Food Bank, "Lydia House", Tim Noah Foundation, high school scholarships and Little Cedars Elementary School playground project. Many hours of service were also contributed to supporting City and Chamber events. Snohomish High School Key Club and Key Leader programs benefited from their efforts to provide leadership training and community service opportunities to high school students. This will be even greater next year with the chartering of the new Key Club at Glacier Peak High School.

"We hope that our results will raise awareness of the impact Kiwanis has as an advocate for children and communities worldwide," said Rodney Vroman, Secretary of the Snohomish Kiwanis Club. "Every day, Kiwanis clubs across the globe make a difference by organizing youth programs, contributing to notable causes and performing service projects that make the world a better place for children." By serving the children of the world, Kiwanis clubs worldwide are empowering children to change the world.

Kiwanis International is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time. The "One Can Make A Difference" campaign complements that mission by demonstrating that one person's actions of kindness are enough to make a significant impact on entire communities. Kiwanis, through guidance and example, works to develop future generations of leaders with its entire Kiwanis family and sponsored organizations including; Key Club, Circle K, Aktion

Club, Builders Club, K-Kids, Key Leader and Kiwanis Junior.
